

Events Helper

Midwest Trail Ride is looking for a person or a few people to help with all our events this season! Whether you are only available for a few weekends or can help with 6 or 7 weekends, if this fits you, please do not be afraid to apply! We are looking for a fun person with an upbeat personality that can work independently on weekends to ensure some of our events are top notch!

Duties might include:

- Judging obstacle course
- Setting up obstacle course
- Getting speakers out, putting together and getting ready for event
- Announcing at horse show or ranch day
- Cleaning Arena after horse show or ranch day
- Meeting caterer for a dinner and cleaning tables & making tea
- Working the wine festival: taking care of wineries, carrying ice, setting up tables, etc.
- Decorating for Holidays
- Helping with Halloween (decorating, haunted trail, etc)
- Printing flyers
- Working band night: popcorn machine and looking after restrooms at closing
- Helping come up with new ideas for fun activities

Qualifications:

- Must be able to work weekends (that is when our events are)
- Must be dependable (arriving on time, every time)
- Must have some experience with horses and horsey games/ horse shows/ etc.
- Must be able to work independently after being shown what to do
- This could work into an Events Coordinator job for the right person

Pay can either be handled by a paycheck (if you live locally) or if you wish to bring your trailer and camp and want to trade work for camping we can arrange that too.

Our Mission Statement:

- to provide an unforgettable vacation experience that turns guests into friends. Silence and solitude are some of Gods greatest gifts and are a most healing and rewarding experience from the "rat race" of our fast paced world. Come to MTR to Ride, Rest & Relax!
